SENIOR PROPOSALS ENGINEER

POSITION TITLE:	Senior Proposal Engineer	LOCATION:	Working from home (Base is Watford)
DEPARTMENT:	Proposals	WORKING HOURS:	9am to 6pm
SALARY:	Competitive	REPORTS TO:	Proposals Manager

ABOUT ES BROADCAST

ES Broadcast is a leading provider of equipment sales, equipment rental and systems integration services to the professional broadcast industry, as well as to the live events, esports, corporate and government sectors. Within our Systems Integration division, we have established a formal Proposals department with a mission to increase the success of ES Broadcast’s sales operation, by creating and submitting compliant and compelling bids to our client base.

PURPOSE OF THE ROLE

Working within the Systems Integration Proposals team, the position of Senior Proposal Engineer is a multifunctional role. The primary function of the role is to lead proposal responses and develop initial system solutions based on information gathered from client visits. Additionally, the Senior Proposal Engineer will be required to work closely with our Systems Integration delivery team to create project handover documents and fulfil any other pre-sales engineering requirements, as allocated by the Proposals Manager. Some client management and business development responsibility will also form part of the role, the aim being to create a continuing relationship with key clients.
